PLAN TO SAVE CITY

$30,000 A YEAR

Honolulu, city and county, is to be saved $30,000 a year, if the new budget, recently adopted by the supervisors, becomes of force after the first of the year. As announced in The Star-Bulletin, the saving will be effected in a large measure by logging off the heads of several office holders, and by salary cutting.

Such salaries as are paid out by the city, however, will be paid to good Democrats, if the resolution adopted by the county committee Saturday night is given full weight by the authorities. The resolution, introduced by Soapbox Barron, follows:

"Be it resolved by the Democratic county committee of the City and County of Honolulu, that we instruct the mayor, the board of supervisors, the treasurer, the county sheriff and all other officers having the power to appoint subordinates, who were elected on the Democratic ticket, that in order to comply with the wishes of the people, who elected them to office, that the Democratic party shall manage the city and county government, and to carry out their respective pledges at the Democratic convention, they shall place in every position only Democrats, and in the manner provided by the rules of the Democratic party."

Ioela Kikahi presented resolutions to the effect that all police officers, as well as others, who desire reappointment, or appointment, must send in their applications to the county committee by next Saturday, if possible.

This resolution caused a long discussion, but it was finally passed, after amendment to include "all others."

It was stated last evening that Sheriff Jarrett will not force his officers to abide by this rule and that he will act independently of the county committee if they attempt to enforce it.
